OPINIONS are divided on tipping, but the annual DineSmart initiative is under way and encourages diners to add an extra tip to their bill to support the homeless community in Australia.

Now in its 12th year, the initiative has raised $2.7 million with hopes of topping that up by a further $250,000 in 2015.

More than 115 restaurants nationally and 25 Sydney restaurants will be taking part in DineSmart including Bishop Sessa, Bloodwood, Cafe Sydney, The Apollo, 4 Fourteen and Kingsleys Steak & Crabhouse.

It runs for six weeks in the lead-up to Christmas.

Erez Gordon, owner of Bishop Sessa, says being part of this initiative is a no-brainer.

"DineSmart is a fantastic initiative that we at Bishop Sessa are proud to support again," he said.
