"My son and I escaped during the night when my partner was sleeping. He was getting more and more violent, so it wasn't safe to stay. When we arrived at the shelter we were welcomed with open arms. I just cried with relief that we had a new beginning."

- Louise, 34.

"I was living on the streets by the time I was 14. It's pretty rough out there trying to find somewhere safe to sleep. And a proper meal is even tougher to find. When I finally got a spot at the local youth hostel, it changed my life."

- Justin, 18.
